The address above is the address that agencies must use to forward premiums submitted to the local agency office. This would also be the address that members should be instructed to use when sending in a payment without a statement.

This address will begin showing on MAPP premium statements sent to members for September premiums.

DHS is working to update this information in all relevant areas.

Any payments
sent to the Madison address that was previously provided, will be forwarded to the fiscal agent at the new address.
